

Chinese PE Fundraising News

China Approves Seven New Equity Investment Funds Apr 13, 2009

China's National Development and Reform Commission (NDRC) approved the establishment of seven equity investment funds raising over 140 billion yuan ($US20.49 billion), after halting issuances for half a year.

MSIM Raises US$1.14 Billion for Private Markets Fund IV Apr 21, 2009

Morgan Stanley Alternative Investment Partners (AIP), affiliated to Morgan Stanley Investment Management (MSIM), raised US$1.14 billion in commitments for Morgan Stanley Private Markets Fund IV, a private equity fund of funds.

Suzhou-CDF High-Tech Fund Worth RMB300.00M Launched Apr 21, 2009

Suzhou High-Tech Ventures Investment Group and Shenzhen CDF-Capital Company Limited jointly set up 'Suzhou-CDF High-Tech Fund' worth RMB300.00M, which will invest small- and medium-sized high-tech enterprises.

Carlyle Halfway On Asia Fund After 18 Months Apr 14, 2009

Carlyle Asia Partners III has raised $1.927 billion from 89 investors, after established in 2007 with the target of $5 billion.

Softbank China Raises US$315.00M Apr 28, 2009

Chinese venture firm Softbank China Venture Capital raised US$315.00 million for its Fund III from investors including Starling, Montagu Newhall, Princess and CalPERS.

CEIM to Raise US$205-300M Real Estate PE Fund Apr 17, 2009

China Everbright Investment Management (CEIM) plans to raise US$250 to 300 million for its real estate PE arm, ALAM Southwest Holdings. The Phase I fundraising will collect USD 150 million by June 2009, and the remaining will be raised by the end of 2009.

Credit Suisse's Zhu Said to Start Private-Equity Firm Apr 29, 2009

A managing director in Credit Suisse Group AG's Beijing office, Zhu Lei, is leaving to set up his own private-equity firm, and plans to raise 9 billion yuan ($1.3 billion) in the local currency for two private-equity funds and $200 million from overseas investors.

DFJ Gotham Continues Fundraising Apr 9, 2009

New York-based DFJ Gotham has raised $35 million toward a $125 million second fund from 36 investors.

Apr 15

Apr 22

Apr 29